Rules and Procedures on the use of Municipal or Board Resources for Election Purposes

Purpose:

These rules and procedures provide guidance on the appropriate use of corporate resources during municipal and school board elections, during the election campaign period.

Legislative Authority:

The following legislative provisions are highlighted as they relate to these rules and procedures:

The Municipal Elections Act, 1996 s. 88.8 (4) states that municipalities shall not make a contribution to a candidate.

The Municipal Elections Act, 1996 s. 88.8 (1) also prohibits a candidate, or someone acting on the candidate's behalf, from accepting a contribution from a person who is not entitled to make a contribution. As a contribution may take the form of money, goods and services, any use of the Corporation's resources for an election campaign could be viewed as a contribution by the Municipality, which is a violation of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996.

Principles

These rules and procedures clarify that all candidates, including members of Council, are required to follow the provisions of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996.

These rules and procedures also to ensure that all candidates are treated fairly and consistently.

In compliance with the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, public funds are not to be used for election campaigns, including the promotion of or opposition to the candidacy of a person for an elected office, or in support of or opposition to a question on a ballot.

Corporation resources including facilities, infrastructure, equipment, supplies, services, staff or any resource that belongs to or is funded by the municipality may not be used for the purposes of an election campaign or for any campaign-related activities.

There can be no campaign-related activities by candidates in any Municipal workplace or in any municipally owned or operated buildings.

These rules and procedures recognizes that the business of the municipality must continue to be carried out throughout the term of Council and that Members of Council are holders of their office until the end of their term, and supports Members of Council in continuing to fulfill their responsibilities as Members of Council. These rules and procedures does not preclude Members of Council from representing the interests of the constituents who elected them.

The following guidelines apply to all members of Council, municipal and school board candidates and acclaimed members.

Guidelines

1. A candidate may not use municipal facilities for election campaign purposes or for any campaign related activities.
