6. O.P.P. Report

- Detailed report for February was distributed prior to the meeting for review and to allow for effective discussion at the Board meeting
- Inspector Jason Younan provided a comprehensive overview and explanation of the report for the month of February
- It was noted that the majority of members were deployed in various areas the past month
- Several truck convoys have been organized across Huron County – some issues were identified, however not significant, other than the most recent where there were numerous traffic act offenses
- The next trucker convoy scheduled for March 19, 2022 will go from Huron East to Exeter to Victoria Park – working with London Police and other OPP Detachments to ensure safety
- Traffic stats – relatively consistent compared to last year
- R.I.D.E. was similar to last year time frame
- Etickets – 20 tickets issued and 2 warnings
- Violent crimes – good to see lower numbers
- No break and enters for the month
- Concern regarding the number of drive offs in Exeter after filling vehicle with gas – fill up and leave without payment
- Investigation underway for increased LCBO thefts in Exeter
- Clearance rates overall for property crimes is 36.4% - fantastic – exceeding expectations
- Billing Model – calls for services – domestic disturbances are up from 6 to 18 – concerning trend – proactive work taking place in the Detachment – partnership with Victim Services
- False alarms – doubled from last year – impacts Calls for Service
- Calls for Services are down 200 hours from same time period as last year
- Staff Stg Andrew Maclsaac explained that domestic violence calls are sometimes received daily from certain individuals – reach out to the Mental Health team to assist – involve the supports of Victim Services in many circumstances
- Inspector Younan noted that Staff Sergeant Andrew Maclsaac has filled the permanent role in Huron County as one of the two Staff Sergeants. Congratulations on your new role and welcome back!
- Lynn McNichol continues to Act as the second Staff Sergeant in the County
- Chair Dietrich thanked Inspector Younan for providing the report and for responding to inquiries. Warm welcome to Staff Sgt Andrew Maclsaac
